The University of Notre Dame admits students of any race, color, nationality, and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, color, nationality, and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs. The University of Notre Dame does not discriminate in admission, access to, treatment, or employment of persons in its programs on the basis of handicap.

The University publishes an annual report outlining safety and security policies and crime statistics. The report addresses crime prevention, emergency procedures, crime reporting, law enforcement services, alcohol and drug policies, support for victims of sexual assault, and other campus services. Paper copies are available upon request from the director of security police. The report is posted at nd.edu/~ndspd/safebroc.html.

The Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act requires that the University annually make available information regarding graduation rates of students in our athletic programs. You may access this information via the Notre Dame home page (nd.edu) or calling the Office of Public Relations and Information at (574) 631-7367.
